ELEPHANT BUTTE DAM IS ASSURED

The greatest dam in the world, costing more than $8,000,000, is now assured by the United States government. There will be no more delays, the last obstacle has been removed and the work will go ahead rapidly.

Christy Tract

Will get water from this dam and there will be from 2 to 5 crops harvested every year, as it's a well known fact that, with water, this land is the GREATEST PRODUCER in the world.

This land that we are now offering at $50 an acre up will, within the next 3 or 4 years, when the dam is completed, readily sell for $300 to $1000 an acre.

SPORTS.

(By Tim.)

Royal Meteor won the Fom stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. There was nobody winning any foam stakes in El Paso yesterday. It was election day, yesterday was!

Off for Reno, is the joyous cry. Jeff is on his way, and Jack will follow this week. Governor Gillett might have known they'd get into a jam.

In a slow bout at Boston last night, Billy Papke got the decision over Jack (Twin) Sullivan. It was short jabs and leanness for 12 rounds. The crowd nearly went to sleep.

Itah, fe' Yate! Down with the Crim-son! The New Haven boys won 12 to 5. They say that antics of the reunion classes had much to do with it.

The Glidden tourists have reached Dallas, and were given a warm welcome in the Texas city. They would have a warmer welcome in El Paso, and still warmer in Yuma. (Joke.)

A pitched ball was so impolite at Chicago yesterday as to hit manager Chance on his wise head. He was removed from the field unconscious.

It was a see-saw match at Des Moines yesterday. Wichita trying hard.

Now the Blonzie-O'Neil fight has been called off. Governor Gillett wrote district attorney Laird to stop the 20 round go which was set for Thursday night at Bakersfield. And the mouth-piece did.

Because Killian held St. Louis to four hits yesterday, Detroit scored a shut out, an eighth run one.

Joe Gans says that he is not dead. If Joe says anything he is not dead, self evident fact. If Joe were witty as Mark Twain he would have said that reports of his death were grossly exaggerated.

Tony Bonero, a horse, not a prize fighter, took the third race coin at Lantonia yesterday. Tony came from Wintergreen, which had nothing to do with long green. (Another joke.)

Philadelphia took a double header from Boston yesterday. The first game was a walkaway, and the second little better, although Brock did outpace Foxen.

Jimmy Smith all but knocked out Sailor Burke before the Fairmont Athletic club of New York last night. Smith is the Smith whom Stanley Ketchel floored.

Pittsburg and St. Louis broke even in yesterday's double header. Two men were expelled for arguing with his ump.

Bob Fitzsimmons says: "Johnson would turn white in the ring the first time that Jeffries lands on him." Now Robert!

Tommy Burns and Bill Lang of Australia, took the third race coin at Lantonia yesterday. Tommy came from Wintergreen, which had nothing to do with long green. (Another joke.)

CACTUS DOPE

By Lee Hamilton

Monday the pinrods on the El Paso team resolved upon a little session, inasmuch as it was a holiday. Three of them, Red Booles, Ducky Gowan and Roy Gill, packed up their fishing tackle, took plenty of bait and set sail for the big dam to the northwest of town.

Now, while Red Booles is admittedly the most enthusiastic angling advocate on the club, he carries it to extremes, as was proved before the day was over. Red baited his hook, threw it into the drink, let out his line and waited. Pretty soon there was a bite. Red pulled—but instead of landing the finny member, which seemed from its refusal to bite to be of that-like proportion, he succeeded only in nicely doubling himself with Rio Grande aqua.

When the first pull didn't land the fish, Red pulled harder. But, alas! The second pull happened to come at a moment when the freckled lad was a little off his balance. He took a nice, delicious header and brought up with a splash in the middle of the dam.

According to reports brought down from up Bisbee way, everything is not as calm and serene as it should be, even with the so-called pennant-winning Maroons topping their competitors. The directors and the people are not satisfied, there's trouble between members of the team, some of whom don't like Dairymple, and in fact a partial recurrence of the troubles experienced by the club earlier in the season, when Dairymple resigned and was going to leave.

Joe Chevalier, the former Texas league pitcher, who was sent for by Dairymple, was in town Monday and spoke freely of the club's troubles. It is said that strife was broken out between a majority of the players and Pat Dean, spitball pitcher, who got away with a one-to-nothing game against El Paso recently. His teammates say this victory has put Pat in the enlarged cranium class, while Pat plays on in his quiet way, says wood and says nothing. Chevalier says that now since Pat got beat at Cananea, he's liable to be handed his release, although Clarence Marshall is the only twirler in the camp right now.

Regarding his own case, Chevalier says he was yanked off the train and stuck in the box against Douglas without being given a chance to get his breath after chasing from a low to a high altitude. He lasted two innings and at the end of that time, his tongue was hanging from his mouth, his eyes staring and he was unable to unwind another pitch. That night Dairymple released him without giving him a further chance, he says.

"For the work being done by a team that's leading its league," said Chevalier, "the Bisbee board of directors seem to be rather ungrateful to their players, to say the least. A short time ago the board had a meeting, called upon every member of the team to attend, gave them a good calling down, individually and collectively, and wound up by saying that if they didn't play better ball an entire new team was ready to take their places, showing them a stack of correspondence a foot high in support of this. That's no way to treat a team that's a winning one as Bisbee is."

Chevalier says that the real live baseball sports are down at Lowell and Warren, where Judge Murphy, Harry Jennings and Jess Younkum hold forth. Chevalier left Tuesday for Albuquerque, where he has a position in sight on the twirling staff of either the Albuquerque or Santa Fe teams.

Ed Mackey, according to letters he has sent to local friends, has been suspended and reinstated again by chief of umpires Walling. He umpired the Bisbee-Cananea series and apparently got away well. With Mackey reinstated, it's up to Anderson and DeWiggins to fight it out for a place, unless they mean get after Mackey. Anderson looked good here until Sunday, then he looked so bad it was horrid. DeWiggins was on the bench taking a lay-off.

Everybody around the circuit likes Plake, former Bisbee utility man, and wanted to see him land in an umpire's job. But Plake isn't going to lose any time waiting for the job to turn up. He has left for Oden, Utah, where he has a chance to play ball, so the Cactus circuit will probably see him no more.

DeWiggins, instead of hanging around town during the days when there's no baseball games, goes out to Las Cruces and dabbles in agriculture. His father owns a fine ranch, around which "Dee" ambles on horseback or indulges in a hunt, as fancy takes him. The Mavericks have a standing invitation to drop out there any time during the week, and "Dee" guarantees them the time of their lives.

With Bobbie Wright released, there will be another shift in the lineup of the Mavericks. The talk now is to try

JEFFRIES REACHES RENO FOR TRAINING; JOHNSON PREPARES TO GO THERE

Reno, Nev., June 22.—With Reno definitely fixed as the battleground, with positive assurance from the governor that no attempt to interfere will be made by the state authorities, and with preparations already under way for building the arena, the Jeffries-Johnson fight seems certain of fulfillment July 4. No further complications are anticipated and promoter Tex Rickard is promised the first quiet pillow he has had since Gillett issued his ultimatum that the contest could not be held in California.

The selection of a site for staging the big fight was made yesterday afternoon. It is a rock strewn field in East Reno, about a mile and a half from the heart of the city, and is familiar in ring history as the scene of the Hart-Root contest, held July 4, 1906. It is regarded as an ideal location, as it affords plenty of ground for a spacious structure and is within easy walking distance of the city. On one side it is flanked by the tracks of the Southern Pacific, and on the other by a trolley line known as the Reno-Sparks interurban railway.

A building about 300 feet square, modeled along the identical lines of the structure begun in "Frisco," will be built. It is hoped to have it completed by the first of the month. No change will be made in the original arrangements of the seats. Plenty of lumber is said to be available.

Another selection made yesterday afternoon was training quarters for Jack Johnson. Tom Flanagan, the champion's manager, after looking over several sites, finally settled upon a roadhouse three miles southwest of Reno, known as "Rick's Resort." According to Flanagan it is an excellent place for training.
